

WORLD'S BEST SLEEP FOUND AT STONEHURST PLACE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 25, 2010 - Stonehurst Place, built in 1896 and restored as well as renovated beyond its original grandeur, has been awarded by travelers as having the "Best Linens, Comforters & Pillows" out of 8,500 B&B's around the world.

"Congratulations to Stonehurst Place," said Pamela Lanier of the well regarded LanierBB.com. "Our readers have spoken and Stonehurst Place has unanimously received the greatest number of votes in this category by their loyal B&B guests and regular visitors to LanierBB.com."

Since 1982 Pamela Lanier's Bed and Breakfasts, Inns and Guesthouses International has provided a comprehensive variety of boutique lodgings for travelers and inn goers. The oldest and most prestigious B&B vote program in the world, all winners are announced in Lanier's print guide, The Complete Guide to Bed & Breakfasts, Inns and Guesthouses International, award-winning website, newsletters and press affiliates.

Stonehurst Place is Atlanta's first EarthCraft Certified B&B and has three suites and two deluxe rooms for guests to choose from. Guests are surrounded by luxury, including original art works from Andy Warhol, Dale Chihuly, Jim Dine as well as vintage pieces from Hermes, Verner Panton and an original 1960's Charles and Ray Eames Lounge Chair and Ottoman.

"Stonehurst Place serves their guests with extraordinary comfort and unparalleled attention to detail," raved Lanier. "Stonehurst Place is the ultimate bed and breakfast destination for any traveler in search of an unforgettable experience."
