

STONEHURST PLACE OWNER WINS INDUSTRY AWARD

Recognized by hotelier peers with PAIL Champion Award

DATELINE - ATLANTA, JANUARY 13, 2011 – Stonehurst Place announced owner Barb Shadomy received the 2011 Champion Award given yesterday at the Annual Innkeeping Show held in Charleston, South Carolina by the Professional Association of Innkeepers International. This award is bestowed upon individuals who have succeeded on behalf of the bed and breakfast industry – local, regionally, nationally, or internationally – by garnering a significant victory for innkeepers.

Stonehurst Place is Atlanta's first EarthCraft certified inn where owner and interior designer Barb Shadomy's environmentally friendly work restored and renovated Stonehurst beyond its original grandeur, incorporating solar panels and other green features into this eco-friendly Atlanta bed & breakfast inn. Guests are treated to the unique combination of restored features of the home and modern luxuries such as heated Carrara marble floors, deluxe two-person spa tubs, and Corian®-clad walk in showers.

"Receiving this PAIL Champion award provides the boost of energy I need to tackle my next project," said interior designer and owner Barb Shadomy. "We are working with the City of Atlanta and its sustainability experts to allow purified rainwater used as potable water supply to individual Atlanta bed and breakfast inns. Atlanta is continually short on water, and we want to contribute to the wise use of this valuable resource by the hospitality industry."

About Stonehurst Place

Built in 1896, award-winning Stonehurst Place is Atlanta's only eco-friendly, luxury Bed & Breakfast Inn. Because it belonged to the same family for over 100 years, this bed and breakfast retains much of its original layout, features and hardware. Offering three suites and two deluxe rooms and gourmet breakfast served to guests each morning.
